Best Practice No.1

1. Title of the Practice:        Zero Class Miss Policy

2. Goal:

- CIME aims at holding all classes as per the academic routine notified in advance. Thus, there shall not be feeling among students that a class has not been held in the absence of a teacher thereby students.
- The underlying principle that “students should attend all classes” and “the college should take all possible care to hold all classes without fail”. This would send strong positive message to all stakeholders, internal and external.

3. The Context

- A student attending all classes exhibits good performance in exams.
- This would enthuse a student to learn and strengthen analytical and professional skills.
- He/she inculcates a good classroom behavior.
- Peer learning and team spirit.

4. Practice

- The faculty members take teaching job as a noble activity. There is a unwritten policy that, in case a faculty desires to go on leave because of pressing need, he/she shall immediately inform the HoD/Coordinator about the proposed absence. This enables the Coordinator to suitably re-adjust the class by other faculty without causing any dislocation to the normal teaching.
- In case of exigencies, immediate arrangement of classes are being done by other subject teachers in order to maintain continuity of class schedule.
- During special occasion like guest lectures, meeting with industry people, the classes are rescheduled with due notice to students.
- Messages are sent to students about reschedule of classes.

5. Evidence of Success

- The zero class miss policy has fostered better understanding and relationship among students and faculty members. This has significant impact on creation of an academic ambience inside the campus. Besides, it helps them inculcate discipline on all fronts. The academic performance of the students goes up significantly.
- One of our students of MCA has bagged the University Gold Medal in the year 2013.

Best Practice-2:*1. Title of the Practice: Swachh Campus*2. Goal:

One of the distinctive best practices of the institute is its passion for a spic and span campus. It includes neatness and hygiene inside and outside the college building and its surrounding. Overall cleanliness is considered to be the first pre-requisite towards attainment of academic excellence in the campus.

The entire physical infrastructure including the land, landscaping, physical assets and facilities are included in the cleanliness program of the institute to maintain purity of shape, size, form and natural characteristics.

3. The context:

- i. To ingrain the habit and practice of workplace cleanliness and hygiene among the student and staff.

4. The Practice:

The entire campus is litter free. Dust bins with aesthetic looks are put all over to give no scope to litter the class rooms, labs, offices, corridors, common rooms, canteen and spaces outside the building like lawns, parking areas, pathways and spaces below the plants. Sweeping and cleaning the floors have been outsourced with clear understanding of service levels. Special attention is given to wash rooms which are cleaned every 2 hours to keep free from any bad odour. Proper toiletries are kept in all wash rooms. Principal and senior faculty members also make use of the common facilities to ensure cleanliness.

Awareness building among new students for cleanliness and its benefits starts from the day he/she first joins the college. Some quality time is devoted in the Student orientation program to highlight the policy and practices of the institute on cleanliness. The senior students are encouraged to mentor the new ones on cleanliness. Students are also made aware of the benefits of green energy initiatives which is a logical extension of cleanliness and resource conservation.

The students are mandated to come to the institute in proper attire and uniform to synergize with the ambience.

Once in every month, the students participate in campus cleaning and surrounding sanitization drive. The drains outside and vicinity of the boundary walls are paid special attention. Stickers and bills are discouraged inside and outside.

Efforts are made to inculcate and elicit a sense of care and belongingness among the staff and students for the physical and soft assets of the institute.

5. Evidence of success:

- i. The campus is immaculately spic and span.
- ii. The good practices get extended to the homes or hostels where the students reside.
- iii. Visitors go back with a very positive outlook on the institute.
- iv. The campus is 100% free from pan, gutka, drug or alcohol consumption.
- v. Blowing of horn inside the campus is restricted to prevent noise pollution.
- vi. e-waste management action plan is under preparation
